

Lizette V. Epps
Speaker~Writer~Consultant

Lizette Epps is the Founder and Owner of Breadth of Hope LLC, a consultancy firm located in Berks County, Pennsylvania. Born and raised in Perth Amboy, New Jersey she learned the importance of advocacy and activism at an early age. Realizing that a solid educational foundation was important, she attended and is a proud MBA graduate of University of Phoenix. She is an experienced business woman with decades of success under her belt in creating process improvements, being an agent of change, and building a fulfilling career in both the public and private sector. She is an influential community advocate and was featured by public outlets such as the Reading Eagle and Women 2 Women Magazine.

Epps has an unwavering commitment to ensuring positive change and standing for social justice for all. She currently serves on the Board of the Greater Reading and Berks YMCA, Chairs the Latina Initiatives Committee, and sits on the Council of Women 2 Women, and. She is a member of the NAACP local Reading Chapter, the One-Stop Oversight Committee and volunteers at several local organizations. She works tirelessly in the community to encourage women and children to become engaged and find success. She has received the YWCA's Coretta Scott King Award and the Reading Eagle's 40 under 40 for her social justice and advocacy work. Her work in the community lead her to founding Breath of Hope, where she seeks to help others successfully navigate their path to personal and professional fulfillment.